

A GREAT BIG LIST OF FUNDRAISING IDEAS

THANK YOU for taking action in the fight against breast cancer.
Fundraisers are so much more than PINK!!

IN YOUR COMMUNITY

Forget-me-knots: Tie a pink ribbon on your potential donors' fingers and ask them not to remove it until they've made a donation. This is a great way to turn the, "yeah, I promise I'll donate" into action.

Corporate Sponsor Shirt: Identify a local sponsor that you can ask for a large donation to support your fundraiser. Offer to wear their shirt for advertising while running your fundraising event.

Waiters: Ask the waiter/waitress or bartender at your favorite hangout to donate a day's tips. If you have a friend who waits or bartends, ask them, too.

Spare Change: Ask your favorite restaurant or local pub to put out a jar for donations of spare change. Decorate it with quotes, pictures, pink ribbons. Anything to get someone's attention. We've even seen portable toilet piggy banks. Put these out somewhere obvious — you're sure to get some attention.

Birthday or Special Event: In lieu of a gift for your special occasion, ask your friends and family to make a donation to Susan G. Komen Wisconsin.

"Sit" for Donations: Baby-sit, pet-sit, house-sit. Offer services to the neighbors to get them involved.

National Holidays: Don't forget about Memorial Day, Fourth of July, Labor Day weekend and all of those picnics. Bring your donation forms and a donation jar — ask everyone in attendance.

Community Finger Print-a-Thon: A suggestion from a fundraising forum: "We used a company called Kid Safe Child ID Network, Inc. We found them on the web at www.thekidsafenetwork.com. They were able to custom create 2,200 Bio-Docs for the local kids: The event was sponsored by the Chamber of Commerce, so it was free to the community. Kid Safe did all the work and we just promoted the event. It was very easy to do. After the event, we received a check for $15,324. Pretty nice for a one day event!"

Coins: Go to your local mall or shopping center and ask what they do with the coins in the fountain.

"Thons": Cut-a-thon (hair salon), Mow-a-thon, Shovel-a-thon, Rake-a-thon. You name it. You can do it for donations. You can even use local Girl Scout or Boy Scout troops to help be your man power for this fun activity.

Check-Out Donation: Make up donation cards for your desk at work. Co-workers can sign their name or purchase the card in someone else's honor. Hang the donation cards around your office in recognition to those that have donated.

Save a "Pear": Get a grocery store to donate some pears and set up a table outside with a sign that says "Save a 'pear' — make a donation to fight breast cancer today".

Walk in Public: Set up a treadmill outside of a store and walk for donations. Set out a donation can for people to drop donations in.

Donation location at work or other highly visible location: Set up a table in front of your local grocery store. Get permission first, and then ask everyone who enters to support you. While this doesn't sound very glamorous, it's very effective. Remember that in addition to raising much-needed funds, you are also playing an important role in raising awareness. Some walkers give a token pink ribbon as a thank you to strangers who donate at an event such as this.

Dog walking for donations: Send out a flyer to your neighborhood offering your services to dog walk or dog-sit while the owners are out of town.

Lemonade, anyone?: Have a yard sale with a lemonade stand, or just a lemonade stand. This is a great way to get your kids or neighbors involved and have them feel like they are joining you in making a difference.

Benefit night at a local restaurant: Check in with your favorite local hangouts. Many restaurants already have programs in place to help you fundraise at their establishment. Be a guest bartender? A guest griller? Or hand out coupons to their establishment for a percentage of profits for that evening.

Garage Sale: Ask all of your friends and neighbors to participate by donating items for sale. Make signs that indicate all proceeds are going to Susan G. Komen Wisconsin to fight breast cancer. Ask your local paper to run an ad as their contribution. Add a bake sale and/or lemonade stand, and have a straight donation jar visibly displayed. Don't forget to have plenty of donation forms on hand!

Super Change Jar: Ask all of your friends and family to put aside their spare change to be added to the super change jar. Every month or so, empty it out and let everyone know how much "a little at a time" adds up! This is a great idea to put into action at work, too. Decorate the jar with inspirational quotes and perhaps the photos of someone special in your life who has had breast cancer that you are honoring or remembering.

Car Wash: Hold a car wash — either in your neighborhood, at your place of worship, or at your place of business. Ask local businesses to donate the supplies you will need and ask your friends to help wash. Add a bake sale; sell chilled bottles of water (that have been donated). If you have enough help, consider adding a dog wash!

Used Book Sale: A more focused and versatile version of a garage sale. Ask everyone you know (co-workers, neighbors, family and friends) to donate any books they have read and are finished with. Choose a time and place to have a used book sale — maybe your local farmer's market, school carnival or community fair.

Banner: Have a group of friends, your child's classmates, or a local business help to design a yard sign for your front yard that you can use to promote your online fundraising page.

House Party: Host a fundraising party at your home for friends, family, co-workers, neighbors. Share The reasons you feel it is important to fight breast cancer; then ask them to support you.

Benefit Night: Throw a fundraising party at a local establishment. Charge your guests an entrance fee (donation). But also make sure to ask that local restaurant, ice cream parlor or teacher's supply store, to support you with a donation of 10% (or more!) of the night's sales — don't be too shy to ask. Also, check with your local restaurant to see if they are willing to support you with a donation of 10% (or more!) on an evening even without a fundraising party — again, don't be too shy to ask. Many local restaurants will support your fundraising efforts by donating a portion of an evening's profits. You can offer to generate a flyer to promote patrons coming to their establishment to help increase their business, and thus your percentage.

Spaghetti Dinner: Encourage your place of worship, work, school or other organization to host a spaghetti dinner to benefit breast cancer. Have all of your friends help with the cooking to make an event where families are welcome and are charged a donation entrance fee to join in the fun. Or organize a potluck party along the same lines where everyone brings a dish to pass and gets to socialize with friends and neighbors. The entrance fee to the party becomes your donation.

Movie Party: Host a movie party at your house. Have pizza and/or popcorn donated and charge a small entrance fee as a donation. You could also pick a fundraising word - Every time your word is said in the movie, everyone antes up $1 in a donation bowl.

Theme Dinner: Hold a theme dinner party for at least 10 of your friends with a donation of $50 a person. Spend just $20 per person on food and you've raised $300 in donations. Better yet, have all of the food donated!

Wine-Tasting Party: Have a wine and cheese-tasting party. If you know anyone (who knows anyone!) who owns, manages, or works in a winery — ask if they will host it! Charge at the door. Blind tastings are fun — or dress up the event with some very special vintages.

Gala Night: Host an elegant or formal party. Have food and beverages donated.

Garden Tour: Hold a garden tour at your home or at a local historical home. Have the tour promoted through your local newspaper.

Host a coffee get-together at your home or at a local coffee shop. Ask your favorite coffee shop to donate the coffee (and maybe even some goodies!). Invite your neighbors and friends. Let them know they will have a chance to pay tribute to someone affected by breast cancer (or any cancer) by signing your shirt. Suggest a donation of $20 (or more!). Get creative and have them sign pink ribbons to be attached to your shirt, or pink buttons, etc.

New Job Party: Celebrate landing a new job with a party! Invite everyone you know and ask them to come prepared to support you and your effort to fight breast cancer.

Pet Birthday Party: Have a fun birthday party for your pet — or a friend's pet. Serve dog biscuits and ask everyone to wear ears! Charge at the door. Take photos of your guests with the guest of honor.

TV Show Party: Host a party in celebration of the premiere or finale of a favorite TV show. Serve donated hors d'oeuvres and drinks. Charge at the door. This idea is great for inviting friends over to watch your favorite awards shows like the Oscars®, Emmy® Awards, Grammy® Awards, etc. Or, ask a local bar that has a big-screen television to allow you to have the party there and donate a portion of the food and beverage sales.

Movie/TV Marathon: Host a movie or TV series marathon. Choose a theme (Hitchcock, I Love Lucy, Gilligan's Island, Seinfeld) and start the popcorn! Charge at the door. Enhance the theme with a suggested $1 donation every time a specific word or phrase is spoken, every time Hitchcock himself appears, or every time Jerry has an "aside" with Elaine.

Themed Music/Dance Party: Host a music/dance night — 50's, 60's, 70's, 80's style. Play all of the old favorites. Ask people to come dressed in costume and dance the night away. Serve donated drinks and food. Charge at the door. You can even ask a DJ if they'd donate an evening for you, so you can have a complete selection of tunes!

Scrapbooking Party: Host a scrapbooking party at your house, or at the local store. Ask a pro to lead an inspirational idea exchange and have some great samples on display, some special supplies and/or discounts for attendees. Serve donated food and drinks and charge at the door.

Game Night: Host a game night — Monopoly, Trivial Pursuit, Scrabble, Poker, Bridge, Bingo. Serve donated food and drinks. Charge at the door.

Tea Party: Host a traditional High Tea, or ask a local hotel to do so on your behalf. Charge at the door.

Sweets Party: Have a dessert auction at work, your club or in your neighborhood! Ask local restaurants, bakeries and grocery stores to donate yummy desserts. Post signs at work well in advance and then arrive with your desserts on sale day. Hold a silent or live auction for whole pies, cakes, or batches of cookies — who doesn't need a bunch of desserts on hand for the weekend? Add on to this by making pink ribbon cookies or some other such treat that you can sell for $1 each while you have everyone in the mood for sweets! Add on even more by getting coffee donated — and sell the coffee to go with that cookie!

Kids' Game Day: Invite your kid's friends, nieces and nephews, the neighborhood kids, the soccer team, to a game day at a local park or donated indoor location. Like a drop-off party, you coordinate a couple of hours of fun activities and ask the parents for a donation in exchange. Tetherball, Four Square, Jump Rope, Potato Sack races, Yo-Yo contests, you name it! Have donated snack food and juice boxes available to round out the fun.

Swim Party: Ask a local public pool to donate (or rent at a reduced rate) a couple of hours for a private party. This is a great way to get teenagers involved in the fundraising effort. Have donated snacks on hand, and be sure to include a lifeguard. Turn on some music and charge at the door.

Children's Birthday Party: Post signs at local schools and child care centers offering your party planning services for a sizeable donation. Plan a theme party and get supplies, favors, food and beverages donated. If you are crafty, you could even make costumes. Some ideas are a Princess Party or a Harry Potter Party.

Silent Auction: Ask some local businesses to donate items or gift certificates and hold a silent auction at your fundraising event, or on a payday at work. Things like a book of car wash certificates, $10 off dry-cleaning, movie passes, play tickets, restaurant gift certificates, pet-grooming, a week of free coffee; the list is endless! Set minimum donation limits and allow people to bid them up. Some walkers even get their place of business to agree to set up a silent auction for one item every Friday at work. They get something donated and the office has fun bidding on something new each week.

Live Auction: Same as above, but with an energetic auctioneer. Good for a large crowd and some big-ticket items; a trip for two, a special bottle of wine, landscape, pool or housecleaning service, auctioning off husbands for handiwork.

Golf Outing/Tournament: Work with a local golf course to plan a charity golf outing. Charge a fee to participate and see if you can get prizes donated for the winner of each hole, or the whole course.

Web-Based Auction: Get friends and family to donate things for you to sell on an internet auction site. Make sure to let bidders know that the item's selling price is going towards your fundraising to fight breast cancer in your community.

Special Screening: Ask your local movie theatre to donate a special screening of a new release. Invite everyone you know and make flyers to get the word out. Charge at the door. Ask if the theatre will also donate a percentage of the concession sales for your event!

"Fill-in-the-blank for boobs": Host a fun event using a creative name to catch attention. Who couldn't resist attending one of these: Bingo for Boobs, Bowling for Boobs, Bartending for Boobs?

Poker Tournament Party: Set up some tables and snacks and let the bluffing begin. Charge a fee to join the tournament and winner takes the rest or donates a portion to the "house." Make it an annual event.

Pancake Breakfast: Host a pancake breakfast at a school, park or place of worship. Charge a fee. Get the pancake mix and other food items donated by local stores. Make it an annual event.

Bowling Party: Ask your local bowling alley to donate some lanes for a fundraising party. Invite your office-mates as a team-building experience, your neighbors, your family or a group of old friends. Charge at the door.

50/50 Raffle: Sell tickets to a 50/50 raffle at a large event or gathering. The prize is half the “pot.” The winner splits the “pot” with you — you get 50% of the proceeds and they get the other 50%. See if your boss will let you conduct a 50/50 raffle once a week at work.

Baseball Game: Or other local sporting event. Buy a section of tickets at a group rate and charge your family and friends twice the price. Get food donated and host a tailgate party.

FUNDRAISE AT WORK OR SCHOOL

“Loose Change Day”: Ask your child’s school to have a “Loose Change Day.” Make a flyer encouraging each child to bring in loose change from their house to be donated. Encourage the math classes to assist with counting, predicting and rolling the change. This is a great way to involve the entire school. You can hold this event multiple times; every week or every month.

Personal vending machine at work: Have you ever wondered how much money the vending machine at work clears in a single week? Find out! Purchase some of the office favorites in bulk (or better yet have them donated!), mark them up, and sell them from your desk for $1 or $2. If you have a way to keep them cold, do the same with bottled water and sodas.

Lunch Room: Put up a display in the lunch room at work (a sign with your picture and a note about what you are doing); be sure to include a jar for donations and a stack of your donation slips.

Dress Down Friday: Ask your boss if you can host a “Dress Down Friday.” Employees buy a button and get to dress down on an assigned day.

SPREAD THE WORD

Say It With Color: Color your hair pink or shave your head for donations. Become a human conversation starter and see how much attention you can draw to your dedication to the cause.

Meet the Press: Contact the editor of your local paper or your company newsletter — or both! Ask them to interview you about what you’ve undertaken and why, and include a request for support. Be sure they include instructions in the story for how readers can make donations to you.

Speak at a place of worship: Ask your local place of worship if you can speak to their congregation about breast cancer and your commitment to fighting this disease after a service. Set up a table to collect donations afterwards.

TAP LOCAL TALENT/BUSINESSES

Actors: Ask your thespian-oriented friends to improvise for a “play party.” Invite all of your friends; serve hors d’oeuvres and charge at the door.

Ask your yoga instructor or personal trainer for a donated class: Invite your friends to attend a special yoga/aerobics/step class donated by a trainer. Their admission fee of $20 becomes a donation, and the trainer gets the chance to build their client base. It’s a win-win for all.

Karaoke Bar: Ask your local karaoke bar to host a benefit night. Invite all of your friends; charge at the door.

Car Wash — Take Two: Go to your local car wash and talk with the owner/manager about doing a fundraising event there. Many people go to the same car wash every week. Post flyers a week in advance and then spend a few hours talking with people about what you are doing at the cashier stand. Hand people a flyer, accept donations!

Rock On! If you know musicians, ask them to perform a benefit concert at a backyard BBQ, block party or local club. The admission ticket is a check made payable to the Komen Wisconsin.

Play Tickets: Ask your local playhouse to donate tickets and then auction them off. Better yet, ask them to donate season passes!

Creative Friends: Ask a local artist or creative friend to donate a piece of art or jewelry that you can auction off. If you aren't creative yourself, ask a friend to design a thank you card or blank note card that you can package, tie up with a ribbon and sell.

Your travel agency: Ask for a plane ticket to raffle off, a night in a hotel, or a weekend getaway.

Hair Salon: Ask your hair salon if they will donate $2 from each haircut over the course of a weekend

Gym: Ask your gym if you, or they, can teach an aerobics, yoga or spinning class as a benefit for you.

Free Rent: Get your apartment complex to donate one month's rent to sponsor you.

Happy Hour: Wear a personalized fundraiser t-shirt to Happy Hour and ask people to sign it for a $10 donation. Ask the DJ to announce that you are in the bar.

WORK IT!

Bartender: Ask your favorite bar if you can guest bartend for a night and keep all of your tips. Make sure you invite all of your friends to come in that night.

Christmas Lights: Offer to put up your neighbors' outdoor Christmas lights. It's a job no one wants to do, and they might be delighted to have it done for them, especially if it's a donation to a great cause!

Use Your Talent: Offer any talent or skill that you have for a minimum donation; graphic design, massage, hair stylist, make-up stylist, photography, computer skills, sewing, music, baking, cake decorating, etc. Ask talented friends to donate their skills to your fundraising effort. Tie-in ideas with holidays, celebrations and party themes (wedding makeovers, baking party, holiday portraits).

Sell Space on a Shirt: Sell small blocks of space on a shirt you plan to wear to a Komen WI or other event for a suggested $20 donation. Encourage donors to write a tribute to you, a friend or a loved one. The more you can make your donors feel a part of your fundraising experience, and therefore a part of the cure, the more they are likely to give on your behalf

FUNDRAISING PROTOCOL

Local communities often have laws governing fundraising activities like raffles, garage sales, leafleting, and other promotional activities. Please check with your local government before fundraising in these ways. If you plan to post flyers in a public space (grocery stores, malls, parking lots, etc.) please check with the Property Manager first, before posting your materials.

Be sure to note that your fundraising activity is a benefit for Susan G. Komen Wisconsin and feel free to include the KomenWisconsin.org website or the info@komenwisconsin.org email on your materials.

Need more ideas or assistance? Contact info@komenwisconsin.org any time!
